Dear Admiral Bergen,

Please let me express my great appreciation for the wonderful evening with the Navy League, New York Council, on October 20. It was a great honor and pleasure to have the opportunity to address such an important audience. It was also a pleasure to be in the company of such sympathetic friends. Lastly, please let me thank you most warmly for the Paul Revere bowl, which I will keep here in the Agency with fond memories of the evening and as an expression of my continued high regard for the work of the Navy League, and indeed of the United States Navy you support.

Thank you again.

Sincerely,

/s/ W. E. Colby
